

9/30/2011

Identity Theft Victim Assistance Form

WORKSHEET

The following information will aid you in stopping fraudulent use of your identity and restore your credit:

General steps to follow:

- Contact the three major credit bureaus
- Contact your creditors (complete page 2 of this document)
- File a police report and contact the Federal Trade Commission
- Stop payment on any stolen checks

Contact the fraud area at each of the following

MAJOR CREDIT BUREAUS

Bureau & Online address	Phone Number	Date Contacted	Person spoken with	Comments
Equifax WWW.EQUIFAX.COM	1-800-525-6285
Experian WWW.EXPERIAN.COM	1-888-397-3742
TransUnion WWW.TRANSUNION.COM	1-800-680-7289

When calling explain that you're a victim of identity theft.

Request a 'Fraud Alert' and a 'Fraud Victim's Statement' be placed in your file. This will alert creditors to call you before opening any new accounts or making changes to and existing account. Also, ask for a free credit report.

--	--	--	--	--

Contact each of your creditors, including financial institutions, credit card issuers and utility companies. Check for fraudulent charges and/or changes of address on your accounts. Always follow up with a letter, keeping a copy for your records.

Contact the Federal Trade Commission and if applicable your local Police

Agency/Dept	Address/Phone	Date Contacted	Person spoken with	Report # and Comments
Federal Trade Commission	1-877-ID-THEFT (438-4338)
Local Police

Complaints filed with the Federal Trade Commission are entered into a secure consumer fraud database, accessible only to law enforcement agencies, for use in pursuing criminal investigations.

File a police report with local police or with the police department in the community where you believe the theft of your personal information took place.